

8th class worksheet 6

LEARNING SHEET 4

Activity 2. a:

Read the expressions used by Ravi during his school. Share when you use these expressions.

Answer:

1. Nice to meet you. Answer: I use this expression when I meet my friends.
2. Could you repeat, please? Answer: When I not listen carefully.
3. I think you might be mistaken. Answer: During giving my opinion.
4. Could I borrow your pen? Answer: When I need a pen.
5. Thank you. Answer: To express my gratitude.
6. I am sorry. Answer: When I commit a mistake.
7. May I help you? Answer: To offer help to others.
8. Pardon. Answer: When I commit a mistake.
9. Would you stop? Answer: To request others.
10. Ok, see you later. Answer: Leaving from the place.
11. May I interrupt, please? Answer: To express my opinion.
12. Would you like to read paper? Answer: asking their choice.

Activity 2. b: Observe the responses given below to the expression, “How are you?” and converse in a pair.

Answer: Practice this dialogue with your friend and practice more.

Activity 2. c:

Read the table. Choose the right form of expression/greeting. One example is done for you.

Persons to be greeted	Expressions of greeting
	Hello	Hi	Good evening
Officer			tick
Your friend	tick
Your Uncle			tick
Teacher			tick
Doctor	tick
Stranger		tick
Your new neighbour	tick

LEARNING SHEET 5

Activity 3. a:

(Ravi Kumar is new to the class. The teacher asks him to introduce himself to the class.)

Ravi : Hi, everybody. May I introduce myself to you? My name is Ravi, I'm from Mandya.

Teacher: May I know why you joined this school?

Ravi : My father got transferred to this place recently.

Teacher: Did he? What does he do?

Ravi : He is a surveyor in the public works department.

Teacher: Ok, you can go to your place now.

Ravi : Thank you, teacher.