

8th class worksheet 20

ASSESSMENT SHEET Activity 8

You went to the market. He bought a kilo of onions from the vegetable seller. Some were big, some were small, some were tiny, some were pink, some were red, and some were almost white.

1. The meaning of the word “tiny” in the story is?

- a. tiny b. small c. big d. tall

Answer: b. small

2. In the story, guess the opposite meaning of the word “seller”?

- a. bought b. buyer c. sale man d. merchant

Answer: b. buyer

Activity 9: Read the sentences and fill the blanks with opposite words (antonyms) of the underlined words.

1) Plastic is light but iron is

Answer: heavy

2) You are late today, please, come ____ to school.

Answer: early

3) Some buses are ordinary, and some buses are.

Answer: special

4) My sister is happy but my brother is.

Answer: sad

Activity 10:

Read the story given below. Rewrite the story, replacing each underlined word with the matching antonym. You can choose the antonyms from the table given below.

refuse	expensive	wet	many
soft	noisy	child	cloudy

On a sunny day, a parent went to the park. She put a blanket on the dry grass. The ground felt hard. A man was selling cheap lemon nearby. She decided to buy some and hoped the man would accept her money. There were few people at the park and it was very quiet.

Answer:

On a cloudy day, a child went to the park. She put a blanket on the wet grass. The ground felt soft. A man was selling expensive lemon nearby. She decided to buy some and hoped the man would refuse her money. There were many people at the park and it was very noisy.

Activity 11:

Look at the words given in the first column. Write a synonym and an antonym for each of them. Use words from the cloud. The first one has been done for you.

	Synonym	Antonym
angry	annoyed	happy
expensive	admirable	cheap
windy	stormy	calm
old	stale	new
clean	pure	dirty