The boy Lal Bahaddur and his uncle went for a stroll. It was getting dark. An old man who was selling mangoes saw them. He said, "It is getting dark, I will sell these at one anna for a hundred mangoes". Lal Bahaddur and his uncle agreed to buy. The vendor started counting fruits, '1,2,3,4.....' when he reached 50 Lal Bahaddur asked him to stop. He gave the vendor one anna. Later his uncle asked him, why he had done so. Lal Bahaddur replied, 'A hundred mangoes for an anna is too cheap. He was prepared to suffer a loss because it was getting dark. It was hard on him. Therefore I gave him one anna instead of half anna'.

24. What do you say about Lal Bahaddur's sincerity with the mango seller?

25. What would the vendor think of Lal Bahaddur after this incident?

SNOWBALL

I made myself a snowball
As perfect as could be
I thought I'd keep it as a pet
And let it sleep with me.
I made it some pajamas (pyjamas)
And a pillow for its head.
Then last night it ran away,
But first it wet the bed.

26. Why didn't the snowball stay as the pet in this poem?

27. How is the snowball transformed into the pet?

45th over: 101 from 36 balls. It is becoming difficult for India. Starc into the attack. First ball, a slow bouncer and Dhoni misses it, no run. Second ball, Short ball, Dhoni hooks straight to the deep midwicket fielder and takes a single. Third ball, Full toss, Ashwin plays it straight to the third man fielder and takes single. A noball. Dhoni whips the ball straight to the midwicket fielder Maxwell and tries to take a cheeky single but a direct hit and that's what Australia wanted. Dhoni is run-out. India are 231 for 7. Fourth ball, Shami comes in, wide delivery on the offside, Shami tries to run the ball to the third man misses it, no run. Fifth ball, beautiful ball from Starc. Ashwin plays and misses. Sixth ball, Defensive shot from Ashwin, takes a single and India are 232 for 7.

46th over: 97 needed from 30 balls. First ball, a good angling ball from Faulkner, Ashwin plays and misses. Second ball, again Ashwin plays and misses. Third ball, Ashwin tries to run the ball through to the third man and no run. Fourth ball, Good delivery from Faulkner. Ashwin is completely beaten and cleaned up by Faulkner. Ashwin is bowled and India loses 8th wicket. Fifth ball, Mohit Sharma is in and Faulkner strikes again. Mohit beaten by the pace and bowled off the very next ball. India are 232 for 9. Will it be a hat-trick for Faulkner? We will wait and see what Umesh Yadav does? Sixth ball, Umesh plays it safely and prevents Faulkner from taking a hat-trick.

47th over: 97 needed from 24 balls. First ball, Starc bowls a beautiful delivery. Shami just taps the ball to third man and takes a single. Second ball, a good bouncer from Starc, Umesh Yadav was hit on the chin. The Australian players are concerned and gather around Umesh. Third ball, a short ball outside the off stump and Umesh leaves it alone. Fourth ball, a wild swing from Umesh, misses it and the ball goes through to the keeper. Fifth ball, A good delivery to end the innings for India. India all out for 233. It is a 95 run victory for Australia.

Australia beats India by 95 runs and will be facing New Zealand in the finals at Melbourne on Sunday.

A good all-round performance from Australia. They batted, fielded and bowled well to run through the mighty Indian batting line-up. Except for Dhoni, no Indian batsmen stood against the pace bowling from Australia.

34. In which over Dhoni dismissed? And how?

35. Why did India lose the match?

36. Australian players are concerned and gathered around Umesh Yadav. Why?
