

9th class worksheet 39

Learning Outcome 9.6

Reads textual/ non-textual materials in English with comprehension, employing strategies like skimming, scanning, predicting, reviewing, previewing, inferring, and summarising, silent reading, etc.

Activity 41: Inferring

Activity 41.1: Observe the table and answer the questions.

Raju is a class X student. Look at his report card and notice his marks and grades in I and II Terminal Tests in different subjects.

Subject	Maximum Marks	1st Terminal Test	2nd Terminal Test
English	20	12	14
Hindi	20	14	17
Sanskrit	20	17	18
Maths	20	05	05
S. Studies	20	07	07
Gen. Science	20	10	12
Drawing	Gr	B Grade	A Grade
Music	Gr	A Grade	A Grade

A. Answer the following questions:

1. In which term did Raju do better?

Answer: In 2nd terminal test Raju done better.

2. What are the subjects in which Raju got less marks?

Answer: Maths and S. Studies

3. In which subject did Raju get the highest marks?

Answer: In Sanskrit

4. What are the subjects in which Raju has improved his marks?

Answer: In English and Hindi.

5. In which subjects has he shown no improvement?

Answer: Maths and S. Studies

B. Complete the given sentences.

1. Raju should give more attention to _____ and _____.

Answer: Maths and S. Studies

2. Raju loves music. That is why he got _____ in both terms.

Answer: A Grade

3. Raju must study _____ subjects in Class X.

Answer: all

4. The maximum marks in the for each subject is _____.

Answer: 20

Activity 41.2: Jumbled story

- a) The old man thanked him.
- b) He picked up the purse and opened it.
- c) "Is this yours, grandpa?" asked Narendranath.
- d) There was a hundred rupee note in it.
- e) "It's not my money" Narendranath said to himself.
- f) Narendranth gave back the purse to him.
- g) He thought of keeping it with him.
- h) The old man was looking for something.
- i) One morning, Narendranath was going to school.
- j) On the way, he found a purse lying on the road.
- k) Just then an old man passed by.
- l) The old man said 'Yes'.

Answer:

- i) One morning, Narendranath was going to school.
- j) On the way, he found a purse lying on the road.
- b) He picked up the purse and opened it.
- d) There was a hundred rupee note in it.
- g) He thought of keeping it with him.

e) "It's not my money" Narendranath said to himself.

k) Just then an old man passed by.

h) The old man was looking for something.

c) "Is this yours, grandpa?" asked Narendranath.

l) The old man said 'Yes'.

f) Narendranth gave back the purse to him.

a) The old man thanked him.

Activity 41.3: Read the sentence and guess the meaning

1. The rain poured down all morning.

a. spilt

b. fell

c. overflowed

Answer: b. fell

2. My sister's eyes resemble our mother's eyes.

a. run like

b. look like

c. feel like

Answer: b. look like

3. The poor little duckling was quite miserable because he was laughed at by the whole farmyard.

a. calm

b. hungry

c. unhappy

Answer: c. unhappy

4. The teacher handed the register to the class monitor.

a. gave

b. took

c. gifted

Answer: a. gave

5. At the restaurant we were offered a variety of beverages, like iced tea and cold coffee.

- a. drinks b. sweets c. starter

Answer: a. drinks

Activity 41.4: Read the clues and guess the answers. Write in full sentences.

Si.No.	Clues	Answer
1	I can stop traffic. I can catch criminals. I keep people safe. Who am I?	Police
2	I am small. You can call people with me. I can also be used to text, use the internet, or play games. What am I?	Mobile
3	I take care of sick and injured people. I can work in an office or a clinic. I give you medicine. Who am I?	Doctor
4	I make you feel hot. I am yellow and round. I can be found in the sky. Who am I?	The sun
5	I am a household pet. I bark at strangers. I like eating bones. Who am I?	Dog
6	I come in many different colours. I am used to brush teeth. You put toothpaste on me. What am I?	Tooth brush

Activity 41.5: Read the passage and answer the questions.

It was the end of March. In April, Abhi had his final exams and he had not studied at all! He decided to study in the evening. His house was a small one, with only one bedroom. Abhi sat to study in the hall. The fan was running slowly. Abhi was sweating, but if he increased the speed of the fan, the pages of his books would turn. He was studying science, but it was difficult to understand. How he wished he had listened to Ravi sir during class! If he got less marks, appa would scold and punish him.

1. What is the season mentioned in the passage?

Answer: Summer season.

2. Why was Abhi sweating?

Answer: Abhi sat to study in the hall. The fan was running slowly. So Abhi was sweating.

3. Why was Abhi finding it difficult to understand what he was studying?

Answer: Abhi was studying science, but it was difficult to understand.

4. Is Abhi scared of his father?

Answer: Yes, Abhi is scared of his father.