- The poem “The Song of India” is written by V.K.Gokak.
- The poem is like a dialogue between Mother India and the poet.
- In this poem the poet wants to present India’s natural beauty.
- But Mother India wants him to sing about the problems in India.
- Now the poet feels he is unable to sing .
- So, mother India then gives the poet a vision which shows a bright future for our country.
- In that vision, Mother India writes the book of morrow in which future of India will be clear like dawn.
- All the problems will be removed and India will be bright.

OR

In the poem ‘I am the land’ the poet says that the mother earth has an ocean of patience. Man uses land in many ways but she lies patiently. People do many activities and disturb the land. Chain-link necklace chokes and suffocates her. But the land’s self-assertion is that man

		cannot put a fence around the planet earth. Man can't get control over the land. In front of man, the land is always supreme. In this poem earth is the speaker. Earth is speaking to the reader. Man thinks that he owns the earth. People buy land, drill holes. People put fences, soldiers fight with guns, which chokes the land. When people plow her, she gives fruits and flowers. Some come with guns and try to fence her. But people do not know that no one can fence her. She can punish the people. But earth waits patiently for men to realize.
