Q.III

6. Swami was instrumental in a notorious burglar of the district being caught. He managed the feat by biting into the flesh of the house-breaker.
7. Swami was in the second form. Hence, according to Swami's father, it was disgraceful for Swami to sleep next to his granny or mother like a baby.

Q.IV

8. a) Swami's father
b) Swami
c) Because Swami asked How could a boy fight a tiger.
9. First of all, he tried to change the subject so he said loudly and with great enthusiasm about the cricket club & captain. But the father interrupted at once. Then he said from next month onwards he can sleep alone. Father didn't accept. Swami went quietly and secretly to his bed, covered the blanket completely. He pretended asleep until his father came and insisted to sleep in the office room. Swami gave many excuses that the office-room was dusty, the scorpions may live there, the room was dark etc., But all these attempts failed before his father.
