Q.V

9) The poem 'Grandma Climbs a Tree' is written by Ruskin Bond. Ruskin Bond's grandmother has an unusual habit of climbing the trees. She was a genius. She could climb up trees very quickly even at the age of sixty-two. She had such an unusual gift since childhood. She learned climbing trees at six from her loving brother. But She was very happy in a tree than in lift. Her neighbors advised her to stop climbing tree in old age and spend her life gracefully. She rejected their advice.

One day she climbed up a tree but could not come down. After the rescue the doctor recommended her a week bed rest. But she felt it like a hell. Soon she recovered and asked for a house on tree top. Her son fulfilled her wish. He and the poet built a house on tree top. The Granny enjoyed her remaining part of life happily. Thus Granny enjoyed her unusual gift of life in nature.
