4) How does Juliet express her love for Romeo?

Answer: Juliet imagines night like a bird and believes that Romeo will come gliding on the wings of the night like 'new snow' on a raven's back. Then, addressing the 'night' as 'gentle night' and 'black browed night', she implores it to bring her Romeo to her. Next, she asks the night to set Romeo up in heaven as a star so that he will make the face of heaven beautiful and charming. She hopes that when that happens, 'all the world will be in life with the night, and will not pay attention to the over bright or lurid sun'.

Q.III Answer the following question in about 200 words.

1x6=6

5) Feelings that Romeo and Juliet have for each other are expressed with intensity. Discuss.

Answer: The intensity of love between Romeo and Juliet is brought out in Juliet's soliloquy in which she addresses Romeo as 'day in the night'. She imagines night like a bird and believes that Romeo will come gliding on the wings of a night like 'new snow' on a raven's back. Then, addressing the 'night' as 'gentle night' and 'black browed night', she implores it to bring her Romeo to her. Next, she asks the night to set Romeo up in heaven as a star so that he will make the face of heaven beautiful and charming. She hopes that when that happens, 'all the world will be in love with night and will not pay attention to the over bright or lurid sun'. In short, love belongs to Juliet now that she is married, but she does not own it, and she can't own love until Romeo possesses her. That is why there are so much longing and impatience in her request tonight.
