Introduction:

August 15th is celebrated as Independence Day all over India. This was the day in 1947 when India got her freedom from British rule. Independence Day reminds us about the struggle and sacrifices of the Freedom fighters.

Our school celebrated Independence Day with great pleasure. On the day, the students went to school early in the morning dressed in school uniform. The honourable president, chief guest and all the teachers were present there. At about 8 a.m. the National Flag was hoisted by the president. The function started with the national song. This was followed by speeches, patriotic songs and other cultural programmes.

At last, the president and the chief guest made speeches in which they called upon the students to build a new India of our dreams. Then the Headmaster gave a vote of thanks. The function came to a close. Then sweets were distributed among the people present on the occasion.

Conclusion:

Independence Day celebration in school go beyond mere festivities. By celebrating freedom and instilling a deep sense of patriotism in the hearts of students. This programme inspired for shaping young minds into responsible citizens.
