Answer:

One day a fox was very hungry. He was looking about for something to eat. After sometime he saw farmer's wall grapes. The fox was very much delighted. He thought of satisfying his hunger with grapes. They were hanging high up. The fox stood upon his hind legs, but failed to reach them. He made several jumps upwards. He could not get at them. Again the fox took a few paces back and tried to reach them but still failed. He was very tired of hunger. He went away saying that grapes were sour.

Moral of the story: – “It is easy to hate what you cannot get”

3. Study the picture given below: 1x3=3

Write a description or an account of what the picture suggests to you in a paragraph.

Answer:

A teacher is such an important person in the life of a student, who through his knowledge, patience and love give a strong shape to a student's whole life. He is a teacher with good skills of teaching, friendly nature, good sense of humour, patient and easy-going. I am one of the obedient students of him. Sometimes he gave us chocolates on doing well in the class tests and exams. He never gave us lots of assignments at home. He is very enthusiastic and also always motivated us for doing our best in the study.
