

Upagupta poem notes

Q.I Answer the following questions in 2-3 sentences each.

1. Why was the dancing girl driven out of the town?

Answer: The dancing girl was driven away from the town as she had struck with small pox all over her body. So, the dancing girl driven out of the town.

2. What does Upagupta mean by saying, "The time, at last, has come to visit you"?

Answer: Upagupta meant to come to the dancing girl when she needed him the most. Upagupta went to her when she was driven away from the town.

3. How did Upagupta treat the suffering dancing girl?

Answer: Upagupta sat by side, took her head on his knees, and gave her water and applied Sandal balm on her body.

4. Why did dancing girl ask forgiveness from Upagupta?

Answer: Upagupta was sleeping in the dust by the city wall of Mathura. That time the dancing girl stumbles over the body of Upagupta. So, she asks forgiveness from the Upagupta.

Q.II Answer the following questions in 5-6 sentences each.

5. Describe the scene, which shows that 'Upagupta was a kind man'?

Answer: Upagupta discovered a dancing girl lying beneath a tree, her body covered with sores from smallpox. He gently moistened her lips and applied sandal balm to her skin. This act demonstrated Upagupta's kindness and compassion.

6. How was the dancing girl described in the poem 'Upagupta'?

Answer: The dancing girl was decorated with jewels and wore a light blue dress. Her face shone with the sound of her anklets, and she was filled with the excitement of youth. This is how the poem describes the dancing girl.

7. How was the spring season described in the poem?

Answer: The roadside tree's branches were full of cheerful blossoms. Happy flute notes floated through the warm spring air. The music came from a distance, adding to the joyful atmosphere. It was a beautiful spring scene.

8. Why did the dancing girl tremble in fear?

Answer: The black night suddenly lit up with a flash of lightning, revealing its frightening teeth. A storm growled from the corner of the sky. The combination of the lightning and the storm's growl made the dancing girl tremble. She was afraid of some unknown danger waiting in the darkness.

Q.III Read the following extract and answer the questions that follow.

9. "Forgive me, young ascetic."

a) Who is the speaker?

Answer: Vasavadatta the dancing girl of Muthura.

b) Whom was it requested?

Answer: Upagupta

c) Why was it said?

Answer: Because her feet were touching his breast.

10. "The dusty earth is not fit bed for you."

a) Who said this?

Answer: Vasavadatta

b) Whom does 'You' refer?

Answer: To Upagupta

c) How did listener answered to this?

Answer: Upagupta said to Vasavadatta 'Woman go on your way.'

11. "Woman, go on your way."

a) Who said these words?

Answer: Upagupta

b) Whom was it said?

Answer: To the dancing girl.

c) When was it said?

Answer: When she invited him to her home.

12. "I will come to you."

a) Who is the speaker?

Answer: Upagupta

b) Whom was it said?

Answer: Vasavadatta.

c) When was it said?

Answer: When he was invited by her.

13. "Who are you, merciful one?"

a) Who is the speaker?

Answer: Vasavadatta.

b) Whom was it said?

Answer: Upp Gupta

c) When was it said?

Answer: When he moistened her lips with water, and smeared her body with sandal balm.

14. "The time, at last, has come to visit you."

a) Who said this?

Answer: Upagupta

b) Who do 'You' refer to?

Answer: 'You' refers to Vasavadatta.

c) Where was she at that time?

Answer: She was lying in the shadow of the Mango grove.

Downloaded from scoringtarget.com